

It is hard enough these days to get news that is delivered to us like thinking adults. Sinclair Broadcasting should not be forcing their stations to play an anti-Kerry documentary any more than they should force Michael Moore's Fahrenheit 9/11 down peoples' throats. You should shut these guys down before our media become any more like government propaganda broadcasts of a totalitarian regime.

Thank you,

Jody Lee